

Per Diem -NUCLEAR MEDICINE TECHNOLOGIST

JOB SUMMARY The Nuclear Medicine Technologist will perform general duties in Nuclear Medicine: technical and operational procedures, equipment troubleshooting, patient care and imaging study performance, including injections, administering radiopharmaceuticals, assists with training of other staff, inventory control, and patient scheduling. Also ensures compliance with regulatory agency requirements with respect to Nuclear Medicine. JOB REQUIREMENTS
Education:

- + Graduate of approved AMA School of Radiology and NMTCB approved School of Nuclear Medicine
- + Valid State of Maine license required
- + National registration with ARRT required
- + Must fulfill mandatory CEU requirement
- + BLS certification required

Experience:

- + 1 year previous experience preferred

Other Skills Required:

- + Excellent written, verbal and interpersonal skills required
- + Ability to rotate to off-site imaging locations
- + Phlebotomy as required

Covenant Health System Values ORGANIZATIONAL VALUES AND RESPONSIBILITIES
COMPASSION We show respect, caring and sensitivity towards all, honoring the dignity of each person, especially the poor, vulnerable and suffering. INTEGRITY We promote justice and ethical behavior, and responsibly steward our human, financial and environmental resources. COLLABORATION We work in partnership, dialogue and shared purpose to create healthy communities. EXCELLENCE We deliver all services with the highest level of quality, while seeking creative innovation. It is an expectation that all staff at Covenant Health will comply with and encourage others to adhere to all applicable laws, regulations and standards including but not limited to State licensing, HIPAA, DNV and the standards of conduct that are part of our corporate "Organizational Integrity" program.