

Description

Join Our Team “ Find Your Future!

Up to $5000 Bonus Eligible!!!

Highly Competitive Compensation and Industry Leading Benefits- Paid weekly!

- + Health Insurance “ Premiums as low as 0$ for full time employees!
- + Dental insurance and Vision Insurance
- + Company Provided Life insurance, Short-term and Long-Term disability
- + 401(k) plan with company match
- + Paid time off and 10 paid holidays
- + Tuition assistance for employees and scholarships available for employees’™ children
- + Discounts on our products and services
- + Work uniform and, boot and prescriptions safety glasses allowance
- + Paid Training at our very own Dead River Institute
- + Opportunities for growth throughout our footprint in MA, ME, NH, and VT

The Ideal candidate will have:

- + Experience with installation, maintenance, and repairs of residential and commercial oil and/or Propane heating equipment
- + Strong customer focus
- + The ability to work without close supervision
- + HAZMAT endorsement / Propane License a plus
- + A focus on safety!

Experience:

- + Apprentice “ Will have successfully completed oil burner training course or CETP program.
- + Journeyman “ Will have at least one year of relevant oil and/or propane service experience.
- + Master “ Will have two or more years of relevant oil and/or propane service experience

Certification, Licensing, and Testing: “ Apprentices, Journeyman or Master designation licensing is necessary in states where required. “ Applicable propane CETP certification is required for propane technicians. “ All technicians must be able to pass a pre-employment physical. “ All technicians must have a valid motor vehicle drivers’™ license. Driving record is reviewed at employment, and annually thereafter, and must meet company standards.