

JOB DESCRIPTION
Resident Service Coordinator

JOB SUMMARY

The mission of the Resident Services Program is to promote successful residencies and to assist residents in achieving maximum independence and self-sufficiency.

The Resident Service Coordinator achieves these objectives by identifying needs and linking residents with services and resources in the community. Resident Services Coordinator provides information and referral and assists residents in accessing services and resources including educational and job training opportunities, financial assistance, health care and personal support services, personal finance and budgeting information, after school and summer programming for children, nutrition education, food assistance and socialization opportunities such as community gardens and recreational activities.

Resident Service Coordinators work in collaboration with the Regional Property Manager as part of the property management team.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS

- Meet regularly with the Regional Property Manager and/or Site Staff to ensure open communication and effective coordination of activities and services.
- Receive referrals from the Regional Property Manager for new residents and residents who are in jeopardy of eviction due to nonpayment or other lease violations.
- Follow up on all referrals of "at-risk" residents by conducting outreach, providing appropriate assistance and reporting back to the Regional Property Manager.
- Provide new resident orientation to all new residents.
- Keep the Regional Property Manager informed of daily work schedule and all resident services programs and activities.
- Develop a resident services plan annually based on the needs and interests of residents and the availability of resources in the surrounding community.
- Obtain input from residents and the Regional Property Manager in developing the resident services plan
- Interview residents, assess their capabilities and needs and help them determine what services are needed to achieve or maintain independence and self-sufficiency.
- Create and update annually a resource guide to ensure current and correct information is provided to residents (e.g., locations, application process, etc.) about resources in the community.
- Establish and maintain effective working relationships with local public and private assistance agencies and resources.
- Maintain strict confidentiality of residents' personal information unless the resident authorizes disclosure in writing, except where disclosure is required in connection with abuse or neglect, the safety of the resident or others, lease violations, criminal activity, or court order.
- Provide educational information for individuals, groups, families, or the community regarding issues such as nutrition, substance abuse, bedbug prevention, health and wellness, parenting issues, crime prevention and fire safety.

- Educational information and notice of events and activities should be provided via regular newsletters or other communications to residents.
- Report instances of child or elder abuse to appropriate authorities in accordance with local legal requirements.
- Examples of possible on-site programs and activities include after school programs for children; community gardens; computer skills training; educational programs including financial literacy education, nutrition education and parenting education; health fairs; exercise classes, health screenings and socialization opportunities.
- Fulfill all applicable reporting requirements.
- Maintain resident files in accordance with Realty Resources Management policies. Resident files must be kept in locked file cabinets.
- Provide activity reports and support data to comply with HUD or other applicable reporting requirements.
- Provide quarterly reports on progress in achieving the goals of the resident services plan.
- Professional conduct and appearance at all times
- Completes training programs as required by company, federal and state guidelines (ongoing).
- Other duties as assigned.
